UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO

IN RE: CASE NO. 18-51311

RHONDA GAIL GOLSTON   CHAPTER 13

                                          JUDGE ALAN KOSCHIK

        Debtor(s)

                                          AMENDED MOTION OF DEBTOR'S ATTORNEY TO WITHDRAW AS DEBTOR'S CHAPTER 13 BANKRUPTCY
                                          ATTORNEY

        Now comes the debtor(s), Rhonda Golston, by and through her counsel James

F. Ciccolini and hereby request this Honorable Court grant an Order allowing debtor's counsel to withdraw as debtor's attorney in the within Chapter 13 Case. Debtor has alleged throughout her bankruptcy petition that she has been a victim of identify theft including fraudulent access by others to her personal banking accounts. Debtor continues unabated to phone her counsel's office and raise suspicion time and time again that she continues to be a victim of identify theft and banking fraud.

        On March 5th, 2021, debtor left several messages on her attorney's office phone accusing her attorney of engaging in criminal activity to gain access to debtor's personal bank accounts. As a result of debtor's recent criminal accusation alleged against her bankruptcy counsel, debtor's attorney can no longer maintain a client and attorney relationship and therefore, request a court Order allowing debtor's counsel to withdraw as debtor's Chapter 13 bankruptcy attorney.

Wherefore, debtor's counsel respectfully request a Court order allowing him to withdraw as debtor's chaper13 bankruptcy attorney.

Respectfully submitted,
